

POST EVENT TOUR – CANNES

Thursday, 1st December

According to schedule

Depart Barcelona to Nice by flight.

According to schedule

Arrival at Nice Airport and short coach transfer to Cannes.

Cannes is not only the city of the International Film Festival, created in 1946 and taking place every year in May; it is certainly one of France's main and best meeting and convention cities. The Nice Cote d'Azur International airport is located just 33 kilometres from the city centre, where the four and five star hotels, restaurants and shops are within walking distance from the convention centre, known as the Palais des Festivals.

Cannes occupies a central location on the French Riviera, which offers a variety of attractions that very few places in the world can boast: the Côte d'Azur is a wonderful, reliable and well-established destination, offering excellent value-for-money services for your incentive trips, seminars, conventions, product presentations and special events of all sizes and budgets.

Accommodation in five-star properties The Carlton InterContinental and The Majestic Barrière, located right on the Boulevard de La Croisette, the famous seaside street of Cannes.

According to schedule

Welcome dinner for all participants at The Majestic Barrière.
